

Legal and Corporate Compliance Policy

Sample training document for Multi-PDF RAG, metadata filtering, BM25, FAISS, and RRF demonstrations.

1. Contract Approval

Business contracts must be reviewed by the Legal Department before signature when they create material financial, regulatory, intellectual property, or liability obligations. Employees must not sign contracts without appropriate delegated authority.

2. Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential company information and may disclose it only to authorized individuals with a legitimate business need. Confidential information includes business plans, customer information, trade secrets, and non-public financial information.

3. Data Protection

Personal data must be collected, processed, stored, and shared in accordance with applicable privacy laws and company procedures. Employees should access personal information only when necessary.

4. Conflict of Interest

Employees must disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest to their manager or the Compliance Department. A conflict may arise when personal interests could improperly influence business decisions.

5. Intellectual Property

Work products created by employees as part of their employment responsibilities may belong to the company according to applicable agreements and laws. Employees must respect third-party copyrights and licenses.

6. Compliance Reporting

Employees are encouraged to report suspected violations of law, company policy, or ethical standards through approved reporting channels. Retaliation against individuals who raise concerns in good faith is prohibited.
